Urban Chicken-Keeping License Application

This handout is only a guide and not a complete set of requirements.

Chickens may be kept in residential areas with the city limits after obtaining a license from the City of Inver Grove Heights. An application for a license must be made out to the City Clerk on the licensing form provided by the city.

APPLICANTS MUST PROVIDE INFORMATION ON THE FOLLOWING:

- Name and address of property owner where chickens will be kept
- Numbers of chickens
- Site plan of property showing proposed location of chicken coop/run
- Drawing or photo of proposed coop/run

The applicant must pay a licensing fee of $25.

CODE REQUIREMENTS:

- No more than six (6) hen chickens are allowed on a residential property
- No roosters or adult male chickens are allowed on a residential property
- Cockfighting is prohibited within the city
- The slaughter of chickens is prohibited on a residentially used or zoned property
- The owner of the chickens shall live in the home on the property
- Breeding chickens is prohibited
- Chickens shall not be kept inside a home

SHELTER AND ENCLOSURE REQUIREMENTS:

- Only one coop/run allowed per lot
- Chicken coops/runs are prohibited in a front and side yard
- Coops/runs should not be placed within any drainage or utility easement
- Coops/runs should be set back at least 10 feet from neighboring properties and at least 25 feet from the principal structure on a neighboring property
- Fencing must be consistent with zoning codes
- No coop/run should be constructed prior to the time of occupancy of the principal structure
- Chickens shall be treated humanely and provided a secure and well-ventilated roofed structure in compliance with zoning codes
- The structure shall be kept clean and sanitary
- Chickens shall be contained within a coop/run at all times
- The coop/run shall be well-drained so there is not an accumulation of moisture
- Chicken feed shall be stored in a leak-proof container with a tight-fitting cover to prevent attracting vermin

A license to keep chickens shall be issued for two years beginning March 1 and ending February 28. Applications for a renewal permit may not be made prior to (60) days before March 1.
